

Broadband Terms & Conditions

1. Definitions

"Overline" means Overline Network Consultants Ltd, 73 Marlborough Road, Unit 8 The Quoin Estate, Lancing Business Park, Lancing, West Sussex, BN15 8AD.

"Customer" means the person who places the Order and uses the Services.

"Telephone Line" means the telecommunications circuit that the Customer uses to obtain telecommunications services over the public switched telephone network at the Site as notified by the Customer to Overline.

"Agreement" means these Terms, together with the order form.

"BT" means British Telecommunications plc.

"Installation date" means the date when Broadband service is installed in the site.

"Consumer" means a person who enters into a contract other than in the course of a business.

"Customer Equipment" means apparatus belonging to the Customer not forming part of the Overline Equipment but which may be connected to the Overline Equipment.

"Order Form" means the Overline application form, written customer order or e-mailed customer order.

"Overline Equipment" means any apparatus or equipment provided by Overline or any third party to the Customer at the Site to enable provision of the Service under this Agreement.

"Site" means the Customer Site where the Service is to be received. "Service" means the installation, connection and supply of a telecommunications circuit capable of supporting Broadband services at the Site and the provision of telecommunication services over such circuit.

2. Minimum Term

"Minimum Term" means the minimum duration of this contract, which unless expressly stated on the order form shall be 12 months from the date the customer first starts to receive the services.

3. Provisions of the Service

3.1 Overline shall provide or procure the provision of the Service to the Customer in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. The Customer acknowledges that it is technically impracticable to provide a fault free Service and Overline does not undertake to do so.

3.2 The provision of the Service to the Customer will be subject to the characteristics of the Customers Access Connection and BT may determine that it is not possible to supply the Service over the Customers Access Connection. Where this is the case, Overline will immediately terminate this Agreement, Overline will not be liable to the Customer for such termination.

3.3 The Customer acknowledges that during the installation of the Overline Equipment/provision of the broadband service, they may suffer a temporary loss of telephone service, and /or interference to any other Access Connection services, which shall be re-instated following installation.

3.3a) Overline will not be liable for any loss, interruption or interference during installation.

3.3b) The Customer also acknowledges that any telephone socket extensions that are incorrectly wired may be disconnected during installation, without liability to Overline.

3.4 Occasionally Overline and/or BT may have to interrupt the Service or change the technical specification of the Service for operational reasons (such as maintenance or Service upgrades) or because of an emergency. In these circumstances where possible Overline will give notice to the Customer of any such interruption however, the Customer shall have no claim against Overline for any such interruption.

3.5 Except as otherwise expressly permitted under this Agreement, the Customer may not: · modify the Service without Overline's prior written consent; · redistribute, copy or use the Service, or transfer rights to the use of the Service to any third party; · disclose details of the Service, to any third party without Overline's prior written consent; · use the Service except in conjunction with Overline's recommended operating guidelines.

3.6 Overline shall use its reasonable endeavours to comply with the Customer's reasonable requests in respect of installation but Overline or BTs decision on the routing of cables and wires and the positioning of outlets and other apparatus constituting the Overline Equipment shall be final and binding.

3.7 Overline shall use all reasonable endeavours to provide and install or procure the provision and installation of the Overline Equipment at the Site so that the Service can be provided on or before any installation date specified or agreed to by Overline. Any installation date is an estimate only and Overline shall not be liable for any failure to meet such installation date.

3.8 Installation of the Service may be subject to a survey carried out by Overline or BT and the Service may not be provided where the survey carried out, is incomplete or unsatisfactory.

3.9 The customer accepts that the service is rate adaptive and will run at the most reliable speed available. Speed can be affected by external conditions.

3.10 The customer accepts that peak and sustained throughput rates may be reduced by contention within the network the BT central or BT Central plus (as applicable) other components sourced by the customer to provide the customer service, end user speed control systems and the internet and by rate adaptation of modems and Line Rate for broadband products.

4. Use of the Service

4.1 The Customer must not use the Service:

- in a way that does not comply with the terms of any legislation or any license applicable to the Customer or that is in any way unlawful or fraudulent or has any unlawful or fraudulent purpose or effect; in connection with the carrying out of a fraud or criminal offence against Overline, or any other public telecommunications operator; to send, knowingly receive, upload, download, use or re-use any material which is abusive, indecent, defamatory, obscene or menacing, or in breach of any copyright, confidence, privacy or any other.

Rights;

- To send or procure the sending of any unsolicited advertising or promotional material other than in the case of the Customer to its own customers; · in a way that does not comply with any instructions Overline or BT has given; or

- In a way that in Overline 's reasonable opinion could materially affect the quality of any service, including the Service, provided by Overline or BT.
- in a way that in Overline's reasonable opinion could affect the experience of other users on the network; including but not limited to; persistent heavy users of the service, who in Overline reasonable opinion could be seen to be over-using their contended service, may at Overline's discretion have their contention ratio increased without notice.

4.2 Overline will be entitled to suspend the Service or terminate the Agreement where Overline, in its absolute discretion, believes the Customer is in breach of any provisions of Clause 4.1.

4.3 The Customer acknowledges and accepts the following technical limits relating to the Service:

- transmission performance of some metallic local loops will mean it is technically impracticable to provide Service to all Customers within the Service Availability Area; · currently, until such time as Overline advises otherwise, the Service cannot be provided over the same Access Connection as certain other telecommunications services as listed on the Overline Website.
- The Service is not available to Sites where all or part of the Access Connection is provided over fibre optic cable or radio systems.
- That the Service may also affect the performance of some PSTN customer premises equipment.
- That some technical limitations may not become apparent until after the Service has been installed and working for some time. In such circumstances the Service for some individual may need to be withdrawn.
- Rate adaptation can occur several times a day and may cause the link to the DSLAM to reset.
- that in the case of any rate adaptive product, services that offer an up to speed
- throughput guarantees will relate only to the actual rated speed of an individual connection, not any implied speed of service.

4.4 In the circumstances referred to in Clause 4.3 Overline will have no liability to the Customer relating to the provision of the Service (or Overline's inability to provide the Service), the performance of the Service, its effect on other services or equipment, or the withdrawal of the Service.

4.5 The Customer will co-operate with Overline's reasonable requests for information regarding the Customer use of the Service and supply such information without delay.

4.6 The customer must adhere to the Fair Usage Policy located on the web site www.overline.com, which may change from time to time.

5. Charges

5.1 The charges for the Service will be calculated in accordance with the Overline Price List. Charging will begin on the Commencement Date for the Service. Charges will be calculated in accordance with details recorded by, or on behalf of, Overline.

5.2 The Customer will pay the charges within 5 days of the date of Overline's invoice. Overline may charge daily interest on late payments at a rate equal to 5% per annum above the base-lending rate of Bank of Scotland and/or a £15 administration fee is applicable to late payments.

5.3 All charges exclude Value Added Tax (VAT) at the applicable rate, unless stated otherwise.

5.4 Overline may also make an additional charge, on its own or on behalf of BT @ a minimum of £150, for each event and/or per hour in the following circumstances:

- an abortive visit charge may be incurred where incorrect information supplied by the Customer means it is technically impractical to provide the Service over the Customers Access Connection
- Where it is necessary to relocate the existing telephone master socket to provide the Service
- Where Overline or BT are unable to gain access to the Site to carry out installation of the Service or the installation is aborted an abortive visit charge may be payable
- Where certain order information provided by the Customer is illegible, inaccurate or incomplete an administration fee will be charged

- Where Overline or BT provide the support to the Customer outside its normal support times in supply of the Service

5.4.a

In the event and as a result of a customer reporting a fault, if Overline have cause to instruct/request our supplier/BT to attend the customers site to investigate the said fault and no fault is found on the broadband network or it is found to be the customers own equipment that has caused the fault or damage caused by the customer, premises or a third party, Overline reserve the right to charge the customer a minimum charge of £150.00, for each event and/or per hour.

Equipment.

5.5 All customer service/s must be paid via Overline's Direct Debit system in all cases.

5.6 Usage outside of the allocated allowance will be charged at £2.25 per GB.

6. Customer Obligations

6.1 To allow the installation and use of the Overline Equipment at the site, the Customer will at the Customer's own expense:

- obtain all necessary consents, including consents for any necessary alterations to buildings;
- take up or remove, any fitted or fixed floor coverings, ceiling tiles, suspended ceiling and partition covers, as Overline or BT advises are necessary, and carry out afterwards any making good or decorator's work required; and
- provide any electricity and connection points required by Overline or BT.

The criteria above must be completed in advance of any installation work.

6.2 The Overline Equipment shall remain the property of Overline or the supplier of such equipment (including BT) and the Customer shall at all times make clear to third parties that the same is the property of Overline or a third party supplier of such equipment. Overline may modify, substitute, renew or add to the Overline Equipment from time to time at its absolute discretion.

6.3 Overline shall supply the Customer with the relevant information to enable the Customer suitably to prepare the Site for delivery and installation of the Overline Equipment. The Customer shall at their own expense; provide suitable accommodation, assistance, facilities and environmental conditions for the Overline Equipment and all necessary electrical and other installations and fittings.

6.4 A secure electricity supply is required at the Premises for the installation, operation and maintenance of the Overline Equipment at such points and with such connections as specified by Overline. Unless otherwise agreed, this power supply is to be provided by the Customer. Overline shall not be responsible for interruption or failure of the Services caused by a failure of such power supply.

6.5 The Customer is responsible for the Overline Equipment and must not add to, modify or in any way interfere with it nor allow anyone else (other than someone authorised by Overline) to do so. The Customer will be liable to Overline for any loss of or damage to the Overline Equipment, except where such loss or damage is due to fair wear and tear or is caused by Overline, or anyone acting on Overline's behalf.

6.6 Any Customer Equipment connected to or used with the Service must be connected and used in accordance with any instructions, safety and security procedures applicable to the use of that equipment. Any equipment which is attached (directly or indirectly) to the Service must be technically compatible with the Service and approved for that purpose under any relevant legislation or telecommunications industry standards.

6.7 To enable Overline to carry out its obligations under this Agreement, the Customer will at all reasonable times provide Overline employees, and anyone acting on Overline's behalf including BT, who produces a valid identity card, with access to any Site and any other premises outside of Overline's control. Overline will normally only require access during its usual working hours but may, on reasonable notice, require the Customer to provide access at other times. Overline may agree to work outside its usual working hours, but the Customer must pay Overline's additional charges for doing so. These charges will be discussed with you & a written quotation will be sent to you to sign & date.

6.8 If through no fault of Overline, Overline is unable to carry out an installation at, or gain access to, the Site or the installation is aborted, Overline will notify the Customer Nominated Contact and may raise an abortive visit charge of £150 minimum.

6.9 The Customer hereby irrevocably gives permission to Overline or BT and its employees, agents or contractors to:

- execute any works on the Premises for, or in connection with, the installation, maintenance, or removal of the Overline Equipment;
- keep and operate telecommunication apparatus installed on, under or over the Premises;
- enter the Premises to inspect any telecommunication apparatus kept on, the Site or elsewhere for the purposes of providing the Service.
- Where this Agreement or the Service is terminated for any reason Overline or BT will be entitled to enter the Site to remove Overline Equipment installed there.

6.10 The Customer undertakes: -

- To comply with all instructions Overline may notify to the Customer for use of the Overline Equipment;
- Not to allow the Overline Equipment to be repaired or maintained other than by an authorised representative of Overline
- Not to damage the Overline Equipment and not to add modify or in any way interfere with the performance of the Overline Equipment;
- Not to attempt to sell the Overline Equipment
- Not to remove any identification mark affixed to the Overline Equipment showing that it is the property of Overline or other third party supplier of such equipment.

7. Repair & Maintenance Responsibility

The Customer shall be responsible for the repair and maintenance of any Customer Apparatus used in order to obtain or use the Service.

8. Intellectual Property Rights

8.1 The Customer acknowledges that the Customer shall have no rights to any intellectual property rights arising as a result of any use of the Service.

8.2 Any and all intellectual property rights used or embodied in or in connection with the Service shall be and remain the sole property of Overline or Overline's licensors. No title or intellectual property rights there in or in any modification or extension thereof shall pass to the Customer unless specifically stated under the Agreement.

8.3 The Customer acknowledges such title, interest and rights and the Customer shall not take any action to jeopardize, limit or interfere in any manner with Overline's (or any third party suppliers') title, interests or rights with respect to the Service, including but not limited to, using Overline's or BTs trademarks or trade name.

8.4 Where software is provided to enable the Customer or to use the Service, Overline grants the Customer, for the duration of this Agreement, a non-exclusive, non-transferable license to use the software for that purpose.

9. Warranties

9.1 The service will be provided without warranty or representation of any kind, whether express or implied Overline disclaims and excludes all such warranties and representations including without limitation any warranty or representation that the Service is free of defects, of satisfactory quality, fit for a particular purpose or non-infringing of third party rights. The Customer accepts all risks and liabilities associated with the use of the Service.

10. Limitation of Liability

10.1 Nothing in this Agreement shall exclude or limit liability for death or personal injury resulting from the negligence of party or their servants, agents or employees.

10.2 Neither party shall be liable in contract, tort, pre-contract or other representations (other than fraudulent or negligent misrepresentations) arising out of or in connection with this Agreement for:

- Any economic losses (including, without limitation, loss of revenues, profits, contracts, or business); or
- Any special, indirect or consequential losses or any destruction of data, arising out of or in connection with the provisions of this Agreement.

10.3 Subject to clauses 10.1 and 10.2 Overline's liability to the Customer in contract, tort, negligence, pre-contract or other representations arising out of or in connection with this Agreement or the performance or observation of its obligations under this Agreement shall be limited in aggregate to the charges paid, by the Customer under this Agreement.

10.4 Each provision of this Agreement, excluding or limiting liability, operates separately. If any part is held by a court to be unreasonable or inapplicable, the other parts shall continue to apply.

10.5 The Customer indemnifies Overline and its suppliers including any BT against any claims or damages arising from the Customers access to or use of the Service and any information, data or material produced, transmitted or downloaded on the Service.

11. Force Majeure

11.1 If either party is unable to perform any obligation under this Agreement because of a matter beyond that party's reasonable control such as lightning, flood, exceptionally severe weather, fire, explosion, war, civil disorder, industrial disputes (whether or not involving that party's employees), or acts of local or central Government or other Competent authorities or events beyond the reasonable control of that party's suppliers, the party will have no liability to the other for that failure to perform.

11.2 If any of the events detailed in paragraph 11.1 continue for more than 3 months either party may serve notice on the other terminating this Contract.

12. Termination

12.1 The Customer may terminate this agreement after the initial term by giving 30 days written notice to Overline. If a 12 month contract is terminated early Overline will charge the customer the remaining fees in full, including the cease fee detailed in 12.3.

12.2 Either party may terminate this Agreement or the Service provided under it immediately, on notice, if the other:

- Commits a material breach of this Contract, which is capable of remedy, and fails to remedy the breach within 15 days of a written notice to do so;
- Commits a material breach of this Contract which cannot be remedied
- Is repeatedly in breach of this Contract; or is the subject of a bankruptcy order, or becomes insolvent, or makes any arrangement or composition with or assignment for the benefit of their creditors, or goes into voluntary (otherwise than for reconstruction or amalgamation), or compulsory liquidation or a receiver or administrator is appointed over their assets.

12.3 Cancellation in the form of a cease of the service, placed by either party under terms 12.1 and 12.2, will raise a minimum charge of £50.00 to the customer. Migrations away from the service in the form of a 'Migration Authority Code' assisted migration do not attract the cease charge but do warrant a cancellation fee set out in clause 12.1

12.4 Overline may terminate this Agreement immediately upon written notice to the Customer if:

- Overline is informed by BT supporting the Service that BT is required
- To cease the Service by a competent regulatory authority; or
- BT supporting the Service ceases to do so for whatever reason or
- Changes the terms its provision of telecommunications services to Overline for the Service beyond the reasonable control of Overline;
- The Customer fails to comply with any of the material terms or conditions of the Agreement and the Customer does not remedy such failure within 15 days of a request to do so.

12.5 Upon termination of this Agreement the Customer shall immediately stop using the Service and the Customer right to use the Service shall immediately terminate.

12.6 If either party delays in acting upon a breach of this Agreement that delay will not be regarded as a waiver of that breach. If either party waives a breach of this Agreement that waiver is limited to that particular breach.

13. Confidentiality

13.1 The parties will keep in confidence any information (whether written or oral) of a confidential nature (including software and manuals) obtained under or in connection with this Agreement or the Service and will not without the written consent of the other party disclose that information to any person (other than their employees or professional advisers, or in the case of Overline the employees of an Overline Group Company or their suppliers, who need to know the information).

13.2 This Clause 13.1 will not apply to:

- any information, which has been, published other than through a breach of this Agreement
- information lawfully in the possession of the recipient before the disclosure under this Agreement took place
- information obtained from a third party who is free to disclose it; and information, which a party is, requested to disclose and, if it did not, would be required by law to do so.

13.3 This Clause 13.1 will remain in effect for 2 years after the termination of this Agreement.

14. Data Protection

14.1 Overline and the Customer each agree to comply with their respective obligations under applicable data protection legislation and maintain all relevant registrations, including (in relation to the Customer) such registrations and consents as the Customer should obtain and maintain to enable Overline to process personal data in connection with the performance by Overline of its obligations under this Contract.

14.2 The Customer agrees that Overline may put their name and other details obtained from the Order Form into a computerized directory for internal use and to enable Overline to provide the Service.

14.3 Rights of subject access will be in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998 and upon request in writing and payment of the appropriate fee.

14.4 Any and all data supplied by Customers is held in accordance with Overline's current Privacy Policy available at www.overline.com.

15. Consumers

Where you are purchasing the Service as a Consumer the exclusion of the implied terms in Clause 9 and the provisions of Clause 14.1 will not apply.

16. Notices

16.1 Notices given under this Agreement must be in writing and may be delivered by hand, or by courier or first class post to the following addresses:

16.1.1 To Overline at the address of the Overline office shown on the Order Form or any alternative address that Overline notifies to the Customer;

16.1.2 To the Customer at the address to which Customer asks Overline to send invoices, the address of the Customer's premises, or, if the Customer is a limited company, its registered office.

17. General Provisions

17.1 The Agreement will constitute the entire agreement between the parties and will supersede all prior and contemporaneous agreements, communications and representations (except for fraudulent or negligent misrepresentations) whether oral or written, between the parties.

17.2 A person who is not party to this Contract has no right under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of this Contract, but this does not affect any right or remedy of a third party which exists or is available apart from that Act.

17.3 In the event of a dispute between the parties, the parties will attempt in good faith to resolve the dispute or claim arising out of or relating to the Agreement promptly through negotiations between the respective representatives of the parties who have authority to settle the same.

17.4 If any provision of the Agreement (whether in part or in whole) is held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be illegal, invalid or unenforceable the remaining provisions of the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

17.5 Any waiver of any breach of any provision of the Agreement will not constitute a waiver of any prior, concurrent or subsequent breach of the same or any other provisions of the Agreement.

17.6 The Customer may not assign or otherwise transfer, by operation of law or otherwise, the Agreement or any rights or obligations therein without the prior express written consent of Overline.

17.7 The headings to the sections of this Agreement are for convenience only.

18. Law

The Agreement shall be governed by the laws of England and the parties submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of England
